

Vision Statement:

Centennial High School Counseling Program Vision Statement:

Centennial High School students will thrive in a caring and safe learning environment that empowers them to realize their greatest potential. Students will be fully engaged in their learning, and they will actively seek new and challenging experiences that will expand their worldviews and promote their academic, personal, and social development. Through our data-driven comprehensive counseling program, students will master the knowledge and skills necessary to achieve their individual post-secondary goals. Students will utilize their skills to nurture relationships and solidify their sense of self-worth while successfully navigating the many complexities of the twenty-first century world. Students will be employed in a career matching their individual interests, abilities, and values, which will enable them to be productive contributors in a diverse global society.

The Centennial High School counselors believe:

- All students have the ability to learn and to be successful.
- All students should have equal access to a developmental, comprehensive school counseling program.
- All students have the right to be treated with dignity and respect.
- All students have the right to a safe learning environment.
- All students have the potential to complete high school in preparation for a variety of post-secondary options.
- All students should have access to a highly qualified, professional school counselor.

The Centennial comprehensive school counseling program should:

- Meet the needs of all students to positively impact student achievement.
- Be driven by the academic, career, and personal/social standards of the American School Counselor Association.
- Be designed and implemented in collaboration with school and community stakeholders to meet the needs of all students.
- Utilize all available school and community resources to address the needs of students.
- Use data to demonstrate the impact that the school counseling program has on student achievement and also use data to improve the effectiveness of counseling interventions.

All Centennial High School counselors:

- Will adhere to the ethical and professional standards as advocated by the American School Counselor Association.
 - Will seek supervision and consultation, when appropriate.
 - Will participate in professional development opportunities in order to become knowledgeable of new tools and strategies that will increase the effectiveness and quality of school counseling services.
 - Will consider student diversity when planning and implementing the school counseling program.
 - Will serve as leaders within our school community and assume the role of student advocates for systemic change.
