

Gwinnett County Public Schools – College Fair for Students with Disabilities

Saturday October 24, 2015

Time	Room	Breakout Session Choices and Descriptions
Session 1 10:30 – 11:30 AM Session 2 12:00 – 1:00 PM	Berkmar- Parkview Room	Documenting a Disability at the Post-secondary Level Gerri Wolfe, Ph.D.; UGA Regents Center for Learning Disorders (RCLD) The RCLD was established by the Board of Regents to provide specialized assessments for students with suspected learning disorders and serves as a resource for identifying appropriate academic accommodations at the post-secondary level. This presentation will address the criteria needed for the documentation of determining eligibility for appropriate academic accommodations in college. Transition issues and guidance on college match will also be discussed.
Session 1 10:30 – 11:30 AM Session 2 12:00 – 1:00 PM	Meadowcreek- Brookwood Room	Tips for Funding Post-secondary Education Katie Minich, Georgia Finance Commission Do you know how you are going to pay your child's college education? This presentation will review what is required for requesting financial assistance for college, such as the FASFA. Other funding opportunities will include The HOPE scholarship, HOPE grant, and the Zell Miller scholarship and grant will also be reviewed. In addition, learn about two new loan programs for post-secondary schools as well as scholarship resources.